

Samuel Broadbent House take part in a very special community program

Khulisa Social Solutions is a national non-profit organisation specialising in community and youth development, with an emphasis on crime prevention.

Khulisa Social Solutions offers opportunity to young adults and children who acted in conflict with the law to do community service. What better way to give back to a community who suffered because of your wrongdoing?

This confronts them with the vulnerability of people in the community who become innocent victims of someone else's inconsiderate and irresponsible behaviour.

It is our privilege to take part in this program by allowing these youngsters to work under supervision at our facility. It also gives them an opportunity to realize that they have a purpose in life and that they can make a difference in the lives of others. Life is about second chances for those who really want to improve themselves and make something of it.

We believe that we can show children coming from the dark side of life that there is something better in life if you dare to dream.
