

Meet Mr Bean, he is one of the beautiful wild kittens born at Prim Villa in about September 2017. Sister Anne Braum our nursing manager lives 25kms away from Prim Villa. On the 4th December she left work drove to Pick 'n Pay, shopped for an hour and then went home. Later that evening Greg (Anne's husband) said that he could hear crying coming from the area where their car was parked. On further investigations Greg found that it was coming from their car. He and Anne walked around the car to discover when opening the bonnet that a stowaway kitten had jumped into the engine compartment and hitched a ride home with Anne. This little 8 week old feral kitten had survived 25kms and a shopping stop.

The dilemma was how to get him back to Prim Villa.

Right: Having his first meal at his new home under the car – his security blanket.

Mr Bean named by Greg soon crept into their hearts and has been living with his adoptive parents since, he is firmly ensconced sleeping on the bed, following Greg like a shadow playing and eating to his hearts' content and has the run of the house. A little bit of TLC goes a long way to taming a feral cat!
