

Golden Warrior – Dulcie Gillmer

When we think of the Gillmer family, we can't help but smile. A family very well-known to Queenswood Methodist Home.

Mr Graham Gillmer was a very special man, who had a heart for serving his community, as well as the people he was surrounded by. He was a dedicated member of the committee, of which he served until his passing. He was also very hands on, when it came to the drawing up of the building plans, alterations and various new projects at the Home.

Dulcie's granddaughter Danielle Ridout is married to the son, of one of our rental unit residents. We will be welcoming one more family member to the Queenswood family during the month of April. ☺

Dulcie is the wife of the late Mr Graham Gillmer.

Mrs Gillmer celebrated her 99th birthday on the 4th of January with us. We are honoured to celebrate such a warrior at the golden age of 99. We hope you enjoyed your birthday Mrs Gillmer.
