Activities – December 2020

Decorating Christmas trees

The Christmas season is not the same without Christmas decorations. Christmas trees were decorated in the care centre and Christmas lights put up for residents to enjoy.

Christmas cards craft

Residents thoroughly enjoyed this creative activity where they made Christmas cards for family and loved ones.

Bird-feeders

Residents always enjoy being outside and making these bird feeders were easy and fun to do. Residents at Eden were also very observant when the birds came to enjoy the food that was put out.

Sweet music in our ears

We had three music event this month, an Ireland reminiscence music event, Christmas carols sing-a-long and a new resident who spoiled our residents at Forget-Me-Not with beautiful keyboard songs.

Modelling clay

Residents in Forget-Me-Not enjoyed the sensory experience handling the modelling clay. Some creative items were constructed.
